

The George Washington University

Summer Graduate Research Fellowship in Computer Science

Deadline for applications: May 4th, 2008

The Computer Science Department announces its first competition for the CS Summer Graduate Research Fellowship. The award is designed to strengthen and facilitate student research at GWU in all areas of Computer Science.

Eligibility

The competition is open to full-time doctoral students in good standing in the Department of Computer Science at GWU. Applicants must propose a research project that she/he will be working on with a faculty research advisor. Recipients are expected to work full-time on the project and to not hold any other appointments for the two-month duration of the award. The advisor must be a regular faculty member in the Computer Science Department. Up to five fellowships will be awarded, each consisting of $4,000 in student support combined for the months of June and July 2008.

How to apply

To apply, fill out the attached cover page and submit it together with your CV, two-page proposal and advisor signature to csgta@gwu.edu, using 'CS Summer Research Fellowship - [your_name]' as the subject. Specifically, your application should include:

- Cover page, signed by the faculty advisor
- Proposal (1-2 pages, with a font no smaller than 12 pts Times New Roman, and 1" margins). It should include a brief description of the proposed research, including background, motivation, objectives, methods and expected outcome. The proposal should be written in plain language to the extent possible.
- Current CV or resume

Only one application per student is allowed. All applications will be reviewed and the Fellowship recipients will be announced by May 10th 2008.
