

Students Can Be Computer Consultants Too...

Want to learn how? The Independent Computer Consultants Association (ICCA) has a program geared directly to intelligent and motivated students in computer-related studies. We provide the tools, information, and resources necessary to break into the field of computer consulting.

Whether you want to sell your expertise on the side, start up a business, or are just looking to strengthen your resume, get a leg up on your competition with the ICCA.

31st Annual Independent Computer Consultants Association National Conference

Crystal City Marriott Hotel - Washington, DC
June 6-8, 2008

Students receive a 50% discount off the conference price!!

Register by May 15th. Learn more at icca.org

